From Tuesday January 10. to Saturday January 14. 1743.

St. James's, January 10.

THIS Day the following Addreſſes were preſented to the King; which his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve-Men and Freemen of the Borough of Great Grimsby, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects of this very ancient Corporation, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we feel the higheſt Pleaſure upon your ſafe Return to theſe your Britiſh Dominions.

Your Majeſty's known Zeal for a juſt Balance of Power upon the Continent, having carried your Sacred Perſon into the moſt imminent Dangers, as well as his Royal Highneſs the Duke, who has brought off ſo honourable a Mark, and given ſuch early Proof of Courage and Behaviour in the Day of Battle, and the Succeſs attending your Majeſty's glorious Fatigues, produce from us the moſt grateful Acknowledgment to Divine Providence, for protecting a Life ſo valuable and neceſſary, to give a Check to the ambitious Views of thoſe Powers, who diſturb the Tranquility of Europe.

Permit us, Sir, at the ſame Time, to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, and the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, a farther Pledge of Security to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, the Happineſs and Liberties of this Nation.

To which, give us Leave to add the Profeſſion of a moſt ſincere and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Family, upon whom every Thing that is valuable depends.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this 6th Day of January, 1743.

(Price Four-pence.)

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Common Council of the Borough of Cupar in Fyſe, in Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Cupar, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after the Dangers and Fatigues of a Succeſsful and Glorious Campaign.

The Increaſe of your Royal Family by the Birth of another Prince, and the Strengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt by the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, afford a moſt ſolid Pleaſure to us, and to all who juſtly value the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign.

That the vigorous Meaſures, purſued by your Majeſty for the Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, and ſecuring the Balance of Power in Europe, may be always ſucceſsful, and prove an effectual Curb to the Common Enemy, are the earneſt and hearty Prayers of, moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Your Majeſty's

Signed by Appointment,

Ja. Leſlie, Provoſt.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town-Coun-

Counſellors of Perth, beg Leave, with that grateful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs, which ſuch great Events demand, moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the Preſervation of your precious Life, and that of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, when bravely expoſed in a lawful and neceſſary War for the Liberties of Europe: The happy Succeſs of your Arms at Dettingen; a Victory owing, under the good Hand of God, to your Majeſty's Royal Preſence, Reſolution, and Conduct: Your ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions: The welcome Increaſe of your Royal Family by the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; and on the Auſpicious Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark.

And we farther moſt humbly intreat your Majeſty's Permiſſion, to expreſs our ſincere Joy to find both Houſes of Parliament ſo cheafully contributing to the Support of the Common Cauſe and Welfare of Europe, by ſtrengthening your Majeſty's Hands in your good and wiſe Adminiſtration.

Our moſt ardent Prayers and Wiſhes are, and ſhall ever be, That the moſt High may bleſs your Arms with continued Succeſs, in order to a happy Peace, and that he may preſerve your Majeſty and your Proteſtant Succeſſors in your Royal Houſe, to reign over us to the lateſt Poſterity; and that we and all your other Subjects may always make due Returns of Loyalty and Obedience for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your gracious and mild Government; and may be aſhamed to bear any Part in Meaſures that tend to weaken the publick Adminiſtration, ſo wiſely conducted under your paternal Care and Direction for the Welfare of your People.

Signed in our Preſence and by our Appointment, at Perth, the 31ſt of December, 1743. by James Crie, Provoſt.

Vienna, Jan. 11. On the 7th at Six in the Evening, the Marriage of Prince Charles with the Arch-Dutcheſs Marianne was celebrated in the Auguſtine Church adjoining to the Court. The Prince cloathed in a kind of Spaniſh Dreſs, with a Mantle all of Cloth of Silver, and accompanied by all the Knights of the Golden Fleece, and Miniſters of State, with a large Number of Chamberlains, and others of the Nobility, walk'd in Proceſſion to the Church. Next followed the Great Duke in a Dreſs of Cloth of Gold, and then the Queen, leading the Archdutcheſs. In this Manner they proceeded to Church thro' an incredible Croud of People, and after the Ceremony, which laſted about half an Hour, returned in the ſame Order. The next Day there was a very grand Opera at Court in the old Imperial Taſte, and Yeſterday a Ball. On Sunday next there is to be a Maſquerade in the Riding-houſe, which is to be illuminated with 6000 Wax Lights. On this Occaſion Sixteen Knights of the Order of the Golden Fleece were created. The Prince and his Conſort are to ſet out, it is ſaid, the 24th of February for Bruſſels. The Recruits go on extremely well in Bohemia and Moravia. In theſe two Countries they are forming a Militia of 24,000 Men to be furniſhed by the Nobility; and, it is ſaid, that the like Eſtabliſhment will be made for the preſent in Hungary, viz. 40,000 Men to be held in Readineſs, and 10,000 to be immediately formed.
